

COPIES OF THIS EXHIBIT MADE

THE GRAND JURY.

LOONKEEPERS WHO HAVE BEEN COM-PLAINED OF BEFORE—THE LIQUOR

ING TO RETALIATE.
The volunteer corps of detectives of the by the Rev. Dr. Hathaway, president of the League, and the evidence they collected on Sunday against liquor dealers was submitted.

they presented thirty complaints. Thirty amateur detectives went out in pairs. Fifteen made the sacrifice and drank intoxicating beverages. Their companions partook of harmless "soft drinks." The Rev. Dr. Hathaway confidently expects that indictments will be found in many cases.

The persistent violators of the law are mistaken in they expect that they will escape with a light fine for each offence. The officials were yesterday preparing a list of those against whom new complaints have been filed.

before for breaking the Sunday law. The list was presented to the Grand Jury and it is probable that the indictment against them will be under the Werts act.

An official said yesterday to a Tribune reporter: "This has become a serious matter."

They will keep on defying the law until a batch of them are sent to State Prison, and then they will understand that they have no more authority to be law-breakers than any other class of tradespeople. They make a grave error if they expect to get away with this.

It is probable that the Association of Liquor Dealers of Jersey City Heights will retaliate by starting a movement to enforce the Sunday Blue law, which is on the books. Several prominent members of the association stated yesterday that they will hold a special meeting to discuss the matter.

people prohibited by the Blue law from engaging in any worldly traffic on the Lord's Day. They intend not only to close all stores now allowed to keep open—druggists, confectioners and cigar dealers' establishments—but may also stop the operation of the trolley cars. This action is based on the before him for violating the liquor law. They admitted that their places were open, but claimed they only dispensed temperance drinks. The Judge dismissed the charge of illegally selling liquor, but fined them $2 each under the vice and immorality act, and declared he would punish all who Nicholas Foley, of No. 687 Montgomery-st., and John Corcoran, of No. 682 Montgomery-st., were arrested yesterday and held on warrants for selling liquor law last Sunday. Louis Barbina pleaded guilty to selling liquor on Sunday in the Court of Sessions yesterday and was fined $5 and costs.

as they were arrested two weeks ago.

JERSEY CITIES AND TOWNS.

Charles Becker and James Cregan, the California bank swindlers, started for San Francisco yesterday in charge of Detectives Seymour and Whitaker, of California, and a Pinkerton detective.

Colonel E. L. Price was sworn in as City Counselor yesterday at the City Hall. Frederick E. Johnson County Superintendent Elmer C. Sherman has completed the apportionment of the State school money for the various municipalities of Essex County. The amount of tax is $483,472 ft, and the amount apportioned from the State appropriation

Hugh Ross died at his house, No. 35 South Tenth-st., on Monday evening at the age of seventy-seven. He had lived in Newark about twenty years, and was for thirty years a resident of the Ninth Ward in New-York, where he was connected with the Jane Street Methodist Episcopal Church and Salem

The annual inspection and parade of the Newark Police Department took place yesterday. The companies from the four precincts formed at Military Park, and after inspection by the Mayor and Police Commissioners paraded on Broad-st., presenting a fine appearance.

Board of Works a hearing was given to citizens on an application by the Consolidated Traction Company to lay a double track in Elizabeth-ave., from Clinton-ave. to the city line. All the property-owners in the avenue that were present favored the laying of the tracks. An ordinance granting the franchise was introduced and passed.

The Board of Managers of the Newark Exchange for Women's Work held its annual meeting yesterday. The reports showed that the society was in good condition financially. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. T. T. Kinney; vice-

Pallantine, Mrs. Horace N. Cougar, Mrs. Anna Dodd, Mrs. F. Walcott Jackson, Mrs. Franklin Murphy, Mrs. E. D. G. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Ward, Mrs. G. N. Abeel, Mrs. Asa Whitehead and Miss H. R. Pennington; recording secretary, Miss Delia J. Fish; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Campbell Clark; treasurer, Miss Anne M. Miller; assistant

Jersey City Mayor Wanser announced yesterday that he had reappointed Corporation Counsel John A. Blair and

It emanates from a reliable source that two new Roman Catholic parishes will be established in this city. They will be composed principally of territory next to St. Patrick's Parish, but a piece is also to

Workmen employed by the Electric Light Company began excavating yesterday morning at the southeast corner of Jersey-ave. and First-st. to erect a pole. Martin Kelly, who owns the property at the corner, jumped into the hole and defied the workmen to disturb him. He remained in posses-

The accident by which a small boy was severely hurt on Saturday night by being run down by bicyclists speeding around Hamilton Park has aroused the police. They captured six bicyclists who had

Three of the prisoners were lined, and the other three were reprimanded and discharged.

Andrew Yager, an assistant to the official dog-catcher, was arrested yesterday for cruelty to animals. It is alleged that his method of capturing dogs is to kick and jump on them. He gave bail for $100 and was released this afternoon before Justice.

Mrs. Ballington Booth last night mustered the Corps No. 1, of the Volunteers, at the Tabernacle. She was assisted by Colonel Pattie Watkins and the staff band. The ceremony attracted a large audience, and several clergymen were present.

The Union Hill School Board organized on Monday night and made a Democratic sweep, dismissing the Republican janitors and engineers in the public schools and appointing Democrats to fill the vacancies. Messrs. Homan and Joseph Kressbach were William McQueen, of Guttenburg, is under arrest in connection with the robbery of the New York Central express car at Guttenburg, N. Y., on Oct. 10.

Company's magazine a week ago yesterday. Constable Charles Beckhardt, of West New-York, made friends with a gang of men who live in a cave in that township, and learned from one of them that "Billy" McQueen knew something about the robbery.

Meyer Lichenstein, of No. 271 Seventh street, Brooklyn, was arrested on the Bremen pier in Hoboken, N. J., yesterday on suspicion of being a crook. His pockets contained more than thirty pawn tickets, six watches, a number of rings and other things. He was trying to sell a $4 pawn ticket to Albert Johnson, a longshoreman, when he

Mrs. Martha B. Stevens, of Castle Point, and P. C. Lewis, widow of the ex-Minister to Portugal, and her daughters, and Miss Mary B. P. Garnett, all of Hoboken, sailed on the steamship Trave, of the Bremen Line, yesterday.

While playing "duck on the rock" with a number of his schoolmates yesterday afternoon, Alexander Davenport, thirteen years old, of No. 890 Avenue D, Bayonne, was struck on the head by a large stone thrown by Louis Goodchild, thirteen years old, of No. 100 Avenue D, Bayonne.

removed to his home in an unconscious condition. He is suffering from concussion of the brain, and the doctor fears that his skull is fractured.

—●—

HARRISON.

Holy Cross, celebrated the nineteenth anniversary of his ordination yesterday by a dinner given to nineteen members of the priesthood, many of whom were his fellow students. The men of the parish presented to Father O'Connor a silver candel and a medallion shield bearing a memorial inscription to the parish.

...to the ...